Jackson County Young Republicans are proud to offer a scholarship to a Jackson County teen. This scholarship is available to Brownstown, Crothersville, Medora, Seymour, Trinity, Sandy Creek Christian Academy and homeschool students. This scholarship is available to one recipient, or we reserve the right to have two recipients, should there be applicants worthy of being awarded the scholarship.

Please note that there are requirements to be attached:

Achievements:

- Resume/summary of high school activities including any awards received
- Community service organizations/volunteering experiences
- Past/current leadership responsibilities

Attachments:

- High school transcript
- Two (2) Letters of recommendation
- Short description of your goals and ideals for furthering your public service efforts (max 1 page)

Please submit this via email to Adam Nicholson at anicholson@jacksoncountyin.org by 11:59pm on 05/03/2024.

In recent years, we have had situations where these rules have been implemented:

1. No late applications will be accepted. If the email is marked April 29th, it will not be considered.
2. No paper copies will be accepted.
3. Your reference letters need to be in your packet that you send to the email, not from your person writing the letter.
4. Please try to submit this as one file. You may scan it from the student services area.
