

GROUPS SCHOLARS PROGRAM

The Groups Scholars Program was established as a way to increase college attendance among first-generation, underrepresented students attending Indiana University Southeast.

BENEFITS:

- Participate in free preparatory six-week courses during the summer before your freshman year and earn 3 credit hours for course W131 and 1 credit hour for your First Year Seminar course.
- Establish a strong network of support on campus before you officially begin fall classes.
- Receive extensive academic, financial, and social support including academic advising, tutoring, and priority registration.
- Take part in activities designed to foster academic success and degree completion.
- Students who meet qualifications will also receive a new laptop, as well as up to $500 in scholarships toward their Fall 2024 and Spring 2025 tuition.

Stipulations apply.*

ELIGIBILITY:

- Admitted first-year, full-time student
- Resident of the state of Indiana
- U.S. (United States) citizen or eligible non-citizen (green card)
- Qualified through income and eligibility guidelines for PELL eligibility+
- Minimum cumulative high school GPA of at least 2.3
- Core40 degree completion
- Filed your FAFSA by April 15
- Recommended to the program via qualified source

For further details on eligibility requirements, scan the QR code.

HOW TO APPLY:

First, you must complete an application to IU Southeast, be admitted, and receive your IU student ID. Then, you will need to complete the application for the Groups Scholars Program to be considered.

For more information and to apply, scan the QR code.

